OUR IDUCATIONAL INTERESTS.

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH.

This young and ambitious institution is located at Hartford, Obto county, Ky., a town famous for the intelligence and culture of its citizeus. Nearly a century ago, Hartford could boast of her high school, her distinguished lawyers and her learned physicians and her virtuous and cultivated citizens. CAPITAL AND LABOR

In these days of artful demagogues and blatant agitators, it takes courage to say what I'm about saying; but, right or wrong, it is honest conviction and I say it boldly.

The oracle of Delphi told King Philip to make coin his wespon, and he could conquer the world. When Gould, lolling in his palacial car, is whirled through his complexed system of roads, he is monarch of all he surveys. All these beautiful and fertile farms are virtually his, all those toiling millions scarcely enough to keep the wolf from the door. But I deny that all this is

The trouble is, the people have been letting the country slide, as it were, too lazy and indolent and indifferent to discharge the duties of citizens. This, no people can afford.
